Lawrence Williams, departed this life one year ago, Dec. 27, 1918.

Death has taken away a loved one.

From our home and fond embrace.
But the hour of Joy is coming.

When I will meet him face to face. In the graveyard safely sleeping.

Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I love so doarly,
In his lonely, silent grave;
And the flowers I laid upon you.

May wither and decay.

But the love I have for thee, Lawrence,
Will never fade away.
